ORDER:

Government have been permitting appointments on contract as well as on outsourcing basis to effectively cater to the needs of the departments. Contract appointments are being made by the concerned departments as per the terms of the contract. Whereas, under outsourcing the responsibility of the supplying required man power is through different outsourcing agencies duly identified.

2. The Government have framed policy and guidelines on recruitment of persons on Contract/Outsourcing basis and issued instructions from time to time on engaging the agencies for outsourcing support services with emoluments etc.

3. During the implementations of the policy, it is brought to the notice of the Government that several allegations have been made against the engaging the services of Outsourcing Agencies and individuals in a opaque and non-professional manner.

4. Government have therefore decided to examine the issue in detail and analyse the existing system and frame a new policy after duly assessing the present need and manpower requirement. Accordingly, Government hereby appoint the following Committee of Officers to examine the above issue and submit report to Government:-

1. Secretary to Govt.(Ser.), GAD .....Chairman
2. Secretary to Govt.(HR), Finance Dept. ...Member

[P.T.O]

3. Secretary to Govt., Law Dept. ...Member

4. Commissioner of Labour ...Member

5. Jt.Secy./Dy.Secy of G.A.(SU) Dept. ...Member/convenor

5. The Committee constituted above shall submit its report within three weeks to Government, for initiating further action in the matter.
